OTHER NEWS FROM MANCHESTER.

Wall Street Should Be Made Wider-Notes and Brief Local Happenings.

Ex-Judge S. Bassett French, who was stricken with paralysis last week at the house of Dr. Robertson, in Amelia county, was brought to his home in Manchester yesterday afternoon, being accompanied by his sons, Messrs, R. L. and J. M. French, and Messrs. George A. Gary and Stanley Robertson, his sons-in-law. He was brought in an ambulance through the county, the distance being thirty-five miles. The party left Dr. Robertson's at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and arrived in this city at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The trip, of course, had to be made very slowly. Judge French was resting very comfortably last night. He ate supper, and was very cheerful during the evening. Harrison, Tilden Harrison, Clem. Mahoney, Aubrey Thornhill, and Samuel Jewell. The interment will be made at Maury Cemetery.

SHOULD BE WIDER. Mr. Allie Carter Gibbs, aged 20, a very SHOULD BE WIDER.

A well-known citizen of Manchester yesterday was advocating the widening of Hull street, and thought this should be done by all means when the work of repaving the street is commenced. "Certainly," said he, "it is sixty-six feet wide, the same width of Main street in Richmond, but the sidewalks over here are the same width of Main street in Richmond, but the sidewalks over here are thirteen feet wide, while those on Main street in Richmond, are only ten. If the curbing on both sides of Hull street were moved in three feet, this would enable teams to be backed up to the curbing and not be in the way of passing street-cars. CASES IN THE COURTS.

After meals I would feel as if a ball of lead was lodged in my stomach, tired, and listless, as though life was scarcely worth living. Finally I was attracted to the ad. of Ripans Tabules, and concluded to try them. After taking the first two or three I was surprised to find the relief they gave, and by the time I emptied the first box I feit like a new man. I have never been without Ripans Tabules since, nor have I Ripans Tabules since, nor have I ever suffered since. I heartily and earnestly recommend them to any one suffering as I did."

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

TO THE REAL ESTATE OWNERS

OF THE REAL ESTATE OWNERS

OF VIRGINIA.

IT IS A PLEASURE TO US TO EXPRESS to you our opinion that the dawn of solid prosperity is at hand. The time has come for the settlement of our vacant and productive lands. If we Virginians, as individuals, will use our influence to silence the croakers, and men who hang around stores and bar-rooms in idleness, discussing politics, and complaining of conditions they themselves are responsible for. Some of these people will ride ten miles to discourage a new-comer. Virginia has already suffered incalculable injury from such people, who seek to justify their own laziness by abusing the country, while their industrious neighbors make comfortable, independent livings. Visitors and the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, say Virginia has good lands, is well watered and timbered, rich in natural resources, with a climate unsurpassed and shipping facilities, by rall and water, seldom equalled. Surely it is not asking too much of our own people to acknowledge what is good, and accord Virginia the advantages that the outside world says she possesses. As an indication of revival we have recently sold the following places—viz: Ninety-nine acres in Chesterfield, to Mr. Holden, of Pennsylvania, for $2.20; small farm in Henrico, to Mr. Williams, of Massachusetts, for, $455; 49 acres in Powhatan to city man, for $2.500; small farm in Henrico, to dr. Williams, of Massachusetts, for, $550; St acres in Powhatan, to Mr. Franz, of lowa, for $3.30; 349 acres in Amelia, for $5.500; St acres in Powhatan, to Gr. Grant with shortly visit a number of the Western States, going as far as Nebraska and lowa, and will be pleased to confer with real-estate owners, and aid them in disposing of their surplus land.
